Sunday, June 5 – PENTECOST

Be sure and wear your RED.

“Let the Spirit Move!”

Psalm 104:24-34, 35b; Acts 2:1-21

>Worship will be in the Sanctuary with special music by our Choir

>Coffee Fellowship & Pentecost Outreach project on the porch/front lawn. There will be a special Pentecost cake, and you are invited to bring a "finger food" to share.

>Entertainment will be provided by the kids from the Jazz Academy under the direction of Paul Carr.

Sunday, June 12 – A Psalm Sunday: Psalm 8

“How Majestic is Thy Name”

The psalmist of Psalm 8 stands under the same sky ablaze with stars as we do and asks: “What are human beings?” The composer of Psalm 8 gazes at the vast night sky ablaze with stars and feels an altogether proper humility. The psalmist also, however, knows the special regard God has for humanity and the great responsibility God gives humanity. Such knowledge of the place of humanity in creation leads to praise of the Creator: “O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!”

Sunday, June 19 – A Jazz Service Commemorating Juneteenth (June 19, 1865) with readings, prayers and hymns (Psalm 78:1-11; Isaiah 30:35-36; Galatians 5:1, 13-14, 25; Philippians 4:13)

The oldest known African American celebration: On June 19, 1865, slaves in Galveston, Texas, received word of their emancipation two months after the Civil War had ended, and two and a half years after the Emancipation Proclamation had gone into effect on January 1, 1863. If you would volunteer to be a reader for the service, please let Rev. Tatham know

ASAP!

Sunday, June 26

“Brought Home in the Spirit” Psalm 77:1-2, 11-20; Luke 9:51-62. The call to come home, the desire to go home, feeling a sense of home all strike at the heart of who we are as human beings.

NEW NC4 OFFICE MANAGER

We would like to introduce you to Ms. Laraine Grant, our new Office Manager, who will begin work with us this month. Laraine most recently worked as an Administrative Assistant for Hughes United Methodist Church. She has been a Montgomery County Government employee in many different settings and an active Montgomery County volunteer as the Commissioner for Olney Baseball for the Olney Boys and Girls Club.

Laraine brings a wealth of experience to her role as our Office Manager, and we hope you will take the opportunity to drop by and meet her.

As we bring Laraine on staff, we will be adopting new office hours. Laraine will be in the office Tuesdays through Fridays, from 9:30-2:30 p.m.

We offer our congratulations to the following grads: Corrina Davis, graduating from Lafayette College; Ella Roth (granddaughter of Mary & Dwight Brock) who will be attending Univ. of MD; and Eliz Zuber, who will be attending the Univ. of AZ. If there are other grads we missed, please alert nc4pastor@gmail.com.
